CITATIONS:

How to Format In-text citations

- In-text citations use the author's last name and the date, separated by a comma: (Cameron, 1968)
- If the author's name is mentioned in the narrative, then only the date needs be given: Cameron (1968) distinguishes images, writings, and sound recordings...

In case of two or more authors

- Always use both names every time they are referred to in the text. Use the ampersand (&) to connect the names in the parentheses (Knez & Wright, 1970) ... as the medium of museum communication was challenged by Knez and Wright (1970), who ...
- Page numbers are encouraged but not required for paraphrased material. Page numbers must be included for direct quotations and must include abbreviations ("p." or "pp."): Léontine Meijer and Peter van Mensch (2011, pp. 15–34) demonstrate the concept of "dynamic collections"... "to give voice and be responsive to the needs and interests of local community"

REFERENCES - Please put the Reference Lists at the end of the text.
