Information regarding the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Your personal information is compulsory to submit this candidacy form. You may decline to provide your personal data but, in this case, you will not be able to duly and validly submit this candidacy form.

The International Council of Museums (ICOM), as data processing controller, collects and uses only personal data necessary for the selection of the Resolutions Committee. Through this candidacy form, your personal data will be accessible to the ICOM Secretariat, and the ICOM Executive Board and, should you be selected by the ICOM Executive Board, to all ICOM Members. Your personal data will not be shared with any third party and will only be kept as long as necessary for the purposes related to the Resolutions procedure.

In accordance with the GDPR, you have a right to access, modify, rectify and delete data that you accepted to share. Under certain circumstances, by law you have also the right to:

- define directives concerning the management of your personal information after your death;
- object, in whole or in part, to the processing of your personal information;

<sup>1</sup> A conflict of interest occurs when an individual's duties or responsibilities in one role may be influenced or compromised by their obligations in another role, particularly in terms of holding additional offices within the same organisation. This can lead to a situation where personal or professional interests could potentially interfere with their ability to act impartially and in the best interest of the organisation.

- request the limitation of the processing of your personal information;
- request the portability, where applicable, of your personal information.

You may exercise these rights by contacting us by email at rgpd@icom.museum, or by post at ICOM (DPO), 15 rue Lasson, 75012 Paris, France.

You also have a right to file a complaint with the French supervisory authority (CNIL, Commission nationale de l'informatique et des libertés) or any other competent supervisory authority located in an EU-Member State, in the event of a breach of the regulation that applies concerning the data protection.

For more information about our privacy practices, we invite you to read our Privacy Policy, by clicking here.

If you have questions, suggestions, or wish to make a complaint, you can contact us by email at rgpd@icom.museum, or by post mail at ICOM (DPO), 15 rue Lasson, 75012 Paris, France
