

Ethical Guidelines on AI and Indigenous Data Management Working Group

Indigenous Data Sovereignty in the Age of AI

An Online Webinar Series — One Day, Two Sessions

Exploring ethical AI use, cultural authority, and shared stewardship in museums.

Thursday, 17 September 2026

All times Central European Summer Time (Paris time)

Registration required · [\[Registration link\]](#)

10:00 AM CEST

15:00 PM CEST

Session 1

Foundations of AI Governance

Amber Taylor

Ngāti Whātua, Ngā Puhi, Te Rarawa, Ngāti Mutunga, Te Āti Awa
Founder, Native Sentient

Indigenous Data Sovereignty as a governance framework for museums; institutional accountability; consent and responsibilities toward source communities.

Session 2

AI, Sovereignty & Digital Colonialism

Professor Maui Hudson

Whakatōhea, Ngāruahine, Te Māhurehure
Co-Director, Te Kotahi Research Institute, University of Waikato

Rhetorical sovereignty and technological self-determination; algorithmic bias; data extraction as a continuation of colonial dispossession.

A Collaboration of

Registration link